

INFORMATION PACK FOR CANDIDATES

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE

WELCOME

MESSAGE FROM ALEX BEARD, CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Thank you for taking the time to apply for a role at the Royal Opera House.

Extraordinary, world-class performances of opera and ballet are at the absolute heart of our vision here at the Royal Opera House.

So, whether the audience is in one of our beautiful theatres in Covent Garden, watching around the globe in cinemas and online streaming, or taking part in learning and participation programmes up and down the country, we want as many people as possible to enjoy and appreciate these astonishing artforms.

None of this would be possible without the exceptional team of people who work here. People are centre stage of everything we do at ROH, and we built our culture on our core values: treating everyone with Respect, being Open in our mindset and approach, and striving for the Highest Standards in everything we do.

Everyone is welcome at ROH, whatever your background or experience, and we look forward to your application.

Best of luck!

Alex

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE

ABOUT US

Home to The Royal Ballet, The Royal Opera and the Orchestra of the Royal Opera House, the Royal Opera House (ROH) brings together world-class performers and trailblazing creative teams to share unforgettable performances with audiences near and far.

We house the busiest theatres in the world, delivering more than 400 performances and around 1,350 learning events each year. We employ 1000 permanent staff and generate a turnover of £135m, attracting 1.5m attendances in Covent Garden and in cinemas.

We're at the forefront of innovation in ways in which audiences can experience opera and ballet. Our work is accessed and experienced across the UK and globally through streams, tours, cinema relays, radio broadcasts and TV output. We are also at the forefront of sustainability in the arts sector, working with other leaders in this area to try to reduce our environmental impact and inspire our audiences to help us on our journey to net zero.

We work across three sites, all enabling us to produce exceptional performances – our theatres and offices at Covent Garden, our production workshop at Thurrock and our storage facility at Aberdare.

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE

WORK FOR US – EVERYONE IS WELCOME

We want many more people to enjoy and engage with exceptional ballet and opera.

We believe diversity is about making sure we can attract and develop talented people who bring more because of their different backgrounds, experiences, cultures and outlooks.

Recruiting and working with these talented people is just part of the work. We are committed to creating an environment where everyone believes they belong and can do their best work.

We operate a fair and open recruitment and selection process. Every role is open to all sections of society and we welcome your application, regardless of your sex, race, religion or belief, ethnic origin, different physical ability, age, gender identity or sexual orientation.

We particularly welcome applications from those who are from a global majority background and/or those who are disabled, as they are under-represented within the Royal Opera House. As a Disability Confident employer, we guarantee to interview all disabled applicants who meet the essential minimum criteria for our vacancies.

WORKING WITH US – WHAT TO EXPECT

“The Royal Opera House has been an exceptional place to work and thoroughly supported everyone all levels during very difficult times”

“Working at the Royal Opera House has provided me so much joy in my life. I really do love working for such a great organisation and with lovely people.”

“I absolutely love working here.”

Starting a new job can be daunting. At the Royal Opera House we want to make that transition as smooth and easy for you as possible. We'll provide you with all the information you need before you start and will be on hand to answer any questions you may have about the role.

We are a big organisation, with more than 1000 staff and sites at Covent Garden, Thurrock and Aberdare. There will be plenty of people to meet and you'll have a structured induction, including tours of both our Covent Garden and Thurrock sites. This is a great way to orient yourself and understand how all the work comes together.
